Junior Programs in London: school trips and English camps

ENGLISH SCHOOL TRIPS TO LONDON

High School classes and teachers have special needs, interests and budget. Their educational focus may be varied: English language study, Cambridge exam preparation, History of the UK, English Literature etc. We do our very best to adapt our proposal to your specific demand. We may arrange visits to local British schools or even work experiences for High School students aged 16+.

ENGLISH CAMPS IN LONDON

Juniors groups usually come for 2 or 3 weeks, during their school holidays. They not only look for an English course, but wish to discover London attractions, experience the local culture and have fun! Rely on us to design for them an enjoyable stay in England!

Examples of Junior programs:

2 weeks Junior Winter program in London

- 1 week Intensive English Language Course (30 hours) and 2 cultural activities lead by one of our teachers
- 1 week Realia lessons outside the classroom
- 13 nights host family accommodation (shared room, half board)

- Oyster card included zone 1 to 4

3 weeks Junior Spring program in London

- Groups of 30 students accompanied by 2 responsible group leaders.
- Program: Mornings (2 weeks): 15 hours General English (2 closed groups); Afternoons (2 weeks): 15 hours Realia lessons
- One week of excursions to Cambridge, Oxford, Southampton, and Brighton
- Accommodation in hostel (including breakfast)

Nacel English School London is your privileged partner to design your Junior English programs in London: our team of professionals carefully listen to your group's needs, educational project, planned dates, group size and budget.

We teach English to closed groups, allowing our teachers to adapt content to the specific needs and level of the group. English courses may be delivered in a class setting in the school building but may also be arranged outside the classroom, in the streets of London!
